

Symposium on the
ARCHAEOLOGY of NEW YORK CITY

*Ordinary People's Trash:
Profiles of Five New Yorkers*

Twenty-first Annual PANYC Public Program
Museum of the City of New York
Sunday, April 1, 2001

open to the general public

Ordinary People's Trash: Profiles of Five New Yorkers

Twenty-first Annual
PANYC PUBLIC PROGRAM
Museum of the City of New York

Sunday, April 1, 2001

1:00 – 1:10
Opening Remarks
Robert Fitts, Gotham Archaeology, LLC

1:10 – 1:25
Wampage, a 17th century Native American Patriot
Anne-Marie Cantwell, Rutgers University

1:25 – 1:40
The Kierstede Family of New Amsterdam
- the doctor, the trader, the baker
Meta Janowitz, URS Greiner Woodward Clyde

1:40 - 1:55
The Passion of A.V. Winans, New York
Grocer/Merchant
Diane Dallal, Curator of Archaeology, South
Street Seaport Museum

1:55 - 2:10
Break

2:10 – 2:25
Uncle Jim Remsen of Jamaica, Queens
Robert Fitts, Gotham Archaeology, LLC

2:25 – 2:40
An Unremarkable Widow and the Real Five Points
Rebecca Yamin, John Milner Associates, Inc.

2:40 – 2:50
PANYC Awards
Presented by Anne-Marie Cantwell

Bert Salwen Student Prize
Nina K. Finch, for "Wealth in Seneca Village" Cornelia Jervis, for "Spatial Analysis of Seneca Village"

2:50 – 3:15
Question and Answer Session

PANYC thanks the Museum of the City of New York for co-sponsoring this year's public program. Our special thanks to Steve Turtell, Manager of Adult and Academic Learning. Thanks also to Lynn Rakos and Patience Freeman, for their assistance with the program, and to the PANYC speakers. We look forward to seeing you all again next year.